New Brunswick,

N.J.

Dear Madam,

See the New York Paper.
You will win. In your last I tried I told you they never would convict you or yours, and I told you the Truth Circumstances show me a Tramp, around the world with your prayers some day I will come back to myself again. In Sept.
1917 I was get a Tramp, and slept in the Russel Barn, at night - the only place I could afford, and my last night - sleeping in the Barn, I was an Eye witness to all shot took place.
On that fatal night and left for Germany the next night as a Tramp as usual and remained in.
